Day 4 – La Paz – El Triunfo – Todos Santos – Cabo San Lucas– San José del Cabo

In the morning you'll get on the road to Todos Santos, a characteristic colonial village on the Pacific, which has now become a haven for international artists. It has also become famous to be the village of "Hotel California" mentioned in the popular song of The Eagles. Along the way you can visit the ghost mining town of El Triunfo, with the chimney designed by Gustave Eiffel, that stands out among the decadent facades of the houses. Once on the beautiful bay of Cabo San Lucas, with a small boat you will visit the famous Natural Arch, passing by the small Love Beach and the amazing rock stacks, house of a small sea lions family. At the end of the visits we will continue to San José del Cabo, a village founded by the Jesuits in 1723, for accommodation in a historic downtown hotel.

Day 5 – San Jose del Cabo

In the morning, after breakfast, you'll have the opportunity to visit the beautiful beaches of the Los Cabos coast, reachable through uncontaminated stretches of desert. On the way you can admire also some naturalistic attractions of the region, such as the Oasis of the San José Estuary and the Canyons of the Sierra de la Laguna.

In the afternoon you can enjoy free time to visit the historic center.

Between April and December, the following optional activities are available:

- Excursion to the beautiful Coral Reef of Cabo Pulmo, the only one in the northern Pacific. A boat trip will allow you to admire the reef inhabited by large tropical fish with a mask and fins. Along the way back to San José you will travel an easy dirt road near an inviting bathing pond, nestled in the heart of unspoiled nature and fed by a cascade of fresh water;
- the release of Whale Watching to see up close the amazing humpback whales on the Pacific.
